A great big round of applause for Patrolman Gordon Corbett from a grateful community...our "men in blue" have done it again! This time Patrolman Corbett unhesitatingly crawled through the burning Jeffe home to rescue Mrs. Roselyn Jeffe who had been overcome by smoke. Hats off, also to the firemen who combated this fire, (especially former Fire Chief George Geissler) and

REMEMBER WHEN???

One in a series of articles in conjunction with our Boro's 50th Anniversary.

by Roy Waidler

At the site of the new Municipal Building stood the original Municipal Building? There are probably many of you who do. But do you remember when this building used to be the Market Street School?

Formally named as the Lincoln School, this building finally closed its doors-as a school-in 1931.

The picture above shows the 6th and 7th grade students in the year of 1906. It has some rather interesting people in it.

For instance:

--Charles Dapp, the Borough's

first policeman, is there.

--Raymond Reihl, the first Borough clerk, is there.

--Louis Wensel, later a war veteran, and for whom the American Legion, Wensel Post, is named, along with his sister, is there.

--Kitty Doremus, of the Doremus family that once owned much of East Paterson, is there.

--The gentleman who has kindly loaned us this picture, Mr. Fred Peterson, is there.

--Harold Bredder, son of P. Bredder, one of the men who brought East Paterson into being, is there.

Others in the photograph are: Morris Fournier, Harry Porter, Grace Porter, Bert Van Zorn, Cary Van Zorn, M. Freeland, Alfred Reihl, Nellis Norman.

The teachers are Mrs. Northrop and Mrs. Owl.

And, did you know that this school, along with the Washington (East 54th Street) School and Gilbert Avenue school eventually published their own school newspaper, The Triangle? It covered all three schools, presenting poems, essays, and stories by youthful authors, writeups about the faculties, and listings of students with a 100% average in attendance, spelling, composition, etc.

GUESS OUR GUEST

Our guest this week has been a Boro resident for the past twenty years. Born in Hackensack, he spent his childhood and early adulthood in Clifton. An active participant in civic affairs, he recently celebrated the 18th anniversary of his appointment to an extremely important municipal post. In his everyday occupation he works with tools, but rather than that, he supervises others who are highly skilled mechanics in the specialized fields relative to our guests creative activities. He's the doing daddy of a lovely 10-year old miss who attends St. Leo's School. The outdoor type, he's big for the hunting, fishing and beating action, spending as much time as he can squeeze out of his busy schedule to pursue these hobbies. If you haven't guessed by now turn to page 8.

DINNER FORTrustees Lopchuk,

SUNDAY, MAY 29ALMOST 1,000 HEAR
CONGRESSMAN WIDNALL SPEAK ON FEDERAL AID TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS

Nearly 1000 persons literally jammed into St. Anne's Church Hall on Sunday, April 24, to hear Congressman William Widnall's (R-7th) discussion of FEDERAL AID TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS. Many persons had to be turned away due to lack of adequate room.

Never before in the history of St. Anne's Parish (some 60 yrs.) has there been such an encouraging attendance as regards quantity and quality. Mayor Richard Vander Plaats of Fair Lawn and Mayor Albert St. George of East Paterson were in attendance along with several members of their respective Councils. Dr. Ralph Osborne, Superintendent of Fair Lawn Public Schools, and Mr. Barry Tedesco, Asst. Superintendent, were present in union with many teachers, from the private and public schools. Many priests, Sisters, ministers, and laity also attended. The President and members of Citizens' for Educational Freedom (CEF), and members of Bergen County Catholic Education Association (CEA), and a host of other dignitaries were in the audience.

Mr. Widnall said in his discussion that the days of second-class citizenry for students attending private schools "are now behind us." He noted that private schools save the government $3.5 billion a year and educate over 7 million students. Six million of these are educated in Catholic schools and others are in school under the auspices of Lutherans, Jews, Christian Reformed, Seventh Day Adventists.

Because of the increased financial burden of these private schools, Mrs. Widnall indicated that more federal aid for these schools would be forthcoming and he emphasized:

Hon. William Widnall

"What benefits private and parochial schools also benefits America."

Mr. Widnall said that giving public aid to private schools is an emotional issue beset with political philosophies. "However," he insisted, "there is a new approach. Public attitudes have changed and this has been evident with the recently-passed Elementary - Secondary Education Act of 1965 (Pl 89-10).... Public opinion polls indicate a new attitude towards giving public funds for private schools."

Mr. Widnall's discussion was presented by a group of interested St. Anne's (Fair Lawn) and St. Leo's (East Paterson) parishioners. The discussion was presented in the sincere hope that it would serve to clarify the constitutional issues involved in Federal Aid and to cause a more widespread recognition of the massive contribution of the private and religiously-orientated schools to the public welfare. It was also the hope that this discussion would provide a basis for a continuing dialogue—both enlightened and beneficial to the public interest. It has been the American experience in the past—and it is hoped that it will so in the future—that all men of goodwill who discuss problems of common concern will in the end yield results satisfactory for all.

The discussion on FEDERAL AID TO PRIVATE SCHOOLS was taped and is available to interested groups. Write: Fr. Depaul Genska, OFM, St. Anne's Church, 1-24 Lyncrest Avenue, Fair Lawn, New Jersey.

FOCUS ON FACT

By Gertrude E. Unsel

Now, do you wonder why every little town "must" have an industrial park, a youth center, a cultural center, senior housing, and all the rest? We are told there will be no need for transportation because we will all live within walking distance from everything. No garages are shown on the maps for these new communities. Neither is there any mention as to where churches will be located. In fact one planner referred to churches as nuisances.

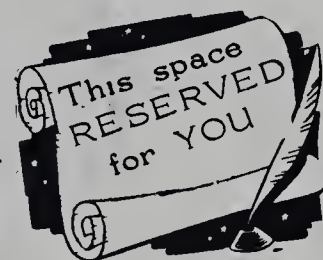

An excellent issue of Life magazine last December covers much of this subject. The question arises: if we will all live within walking distance of everything, it means that we will have to live, work and shop in these self-sufficient communities. Then, it will not be a matter of "accepting" either Negroes or whites because both Negroes and whites will have to "accept" this plan of living without having anything to say about it. We shall all be equal slaves under the dictatorship.

The "new communities" program has already begun in our own area. Right across the River from us in Paterson, the housing authority condemned 300 good homes, made 300 families homeless, razed the buildings and turned over the property to private developers for an industrial park. In the court action brought by the property owners, it was revealed that the report of the survey team had been tampered with, and the word "undilapidated" was erased and made to read "dilapidated". The housing official admitted to the court that the report has been changed. Was the official punished? The 300 homeowners lost the case and their homes, and the official continued in his job.

We can see the plan beginning to emerge in the reshaping of our cities and towns. In Paterson also, an almshouse was torn down to be made into a park of five acres, and a new high school was built in the middle of Westside Park. Over in Passaic, a high-rise senior apartment house was placed in a park, while parkland will be located elsewhere. This was done in spite of the fact that across the street there was a privately-owned apartment house with 40 vacant apartments on which the rents had been recently reduced.

Why is all this shuffling being done? To conform with the regional pattern of the "new communities", without the "constitutional barriers" of city and county boundary lines. Housing, parks, industries, schools, air and water pollution, transportation, garbage disposal, police and fire departments, health services including mental health, court facilities, are all vehicles to be used as an excuse for consolidating or regionalizing our local governments so that the citizens will no longer have control. New self-sufficient communities will be surrounded by wide "green belts." Will this serve as the modern "Chinese Wall" to keep us under control? Think about it!

LET SR. CITIZENS DECIDE ON PROJECT

Dear Sir:

According to a newspaper article, Miss Gertrude Unsel questioned the need of senior citizen housing in East Paterson at the Borough Council meeting April 19.

Mayor St. George was quoted as saying: "The survey would be undertaken by volunteers and would not cost the borough anything."

Being a senior citizen and taxpayer of East Paterson, I offer this bit of advice to the honorable Mayor and Councilmen:

When we little shorn sheep venture forth every three months to pay our taxes, why not have two petitions side by side in the collector's office—labeled "for" and "against" Let us, the taxpaying citizens

BIG ORDER.....The Boro Anniversary Ad Book space is selling for $1,000 (covers) to $200 for an inside page...a little stiff for the small businessman, to say the least. Outside of the large concerns in the Boro, who can afford these prices?

SCHOOL BOARD ATTORNEY SUBMITS REPORT

Following are excerpts from School Board Attorney Gruen's letter to the School Board regarding his interpretations of the findings presented by New Jersey State Auditors in their recently completed investigation of School Board irregularities.

FINANCIAL PROCEDURE

"...there should be no doubt that the financial procedures and practices employed by the Board must now be the subject of a thorough and complete review..."

"...expenditures of an extraordinary nature of public funds be most critically reviewed. In addition, the practice of advancing fixed sums of money to Board members or employees of the Board for expenses which may be incurred at a future date should, in my opinion, be terminated forthwith."

Elmwood Chapter of Deborah.... TAG WEEK May 1st - 7th

EXTRAORDINARY EXPENDITURES

"....I certainly feel that convention expenses and these of a like nature would be typical of "extraordinary" and should receive the utmost scrutiny by the Board as Trustees of the public funds."

PETTY CASH

"....there should be established by the Board most specific instructions to those persons handling petty cash as to the types of expenditures which are authorized therefrom, and every possible effort should be made to verify the payments of small bills from the petty cash fund. These funds should never, in my opinion, be used for extraordinary expenditures such as entertainment, dinners, flowers, gifts and memorial services as the Report indicates has occurred in the past."

TRUSTEE SELLING TO SCHOOL BOARD

(Refers to Trustee LaPorte)

"With respect to this (sale by a Board Trustee of supplies to the Board of Education)... Statutes of New Jersey provide as follows: 'No...member of a board of education...shall be agent for or be in any way pecuniarily or beneficially interested in the sale of...supplies of any kind, or receive compensation or reward of any kind for any kind for any such sale....A violation of the provisions of this section shall be punishable by removal from office....'"

"Any member of...a board of education in any school district who...is directly or indirectly interested in furnishing any goods, chattels, supplies or property to or for the county, municipality or school district, the agreement or contract for which is made or the expense or consideration of which is paid by the board or governing body of which such member is a part... is guilty of a misdemeanor."

"....there is an apparent Statutory violation...."

TWO SETS OF MINUTES

"....I received a telephone call from Trustee Gallo on April 18, 1966, requesting my immediate attendance at the Board Administration Building to review....certain minutes of the Board for the year 1960....An examination of these two sets disclosed a discrepancy between the two in that the official minutes showed several items of expenditures which were not shown on the minutes submitted to the Trustees."

DISBURSING OF FUNDS

"....I feel it vital that immediate steps be taken to provide an internal control procedure sufficient to assure to the public that no public funds are being spent or disbursed without authorization therefor having been given at a public meeting of the Board and in a manner of complete disclosure."

CUSTODIAN OF SCHOOL FUNDS

"The function of the Custodian of School Funds should receive your consideration so that there is compliance with all Statutory provisions and his function fulfilled."

RESTORE PUBLIC FUNDS

"It should be noted that each and every member of this Board, and previous Board, as Trustees of the public funds, may be in the position of having breached their duty as such Trustees, and have personal obligation to see to it that these public funds are restored to the public treasury."

KATHLEEN VLADYKA TO PLEDGE DELTA OMICRON PI SORORITY

"A Prayer of Praise"

When we do things that please God, we shall also find that it blesses us. For example; prayer. It pleases God to have us pray to him; and if we pray sincerely and believingly, it also results in a blessing to us. To be more specific; let us take a Prayer of Praise. May I suggest you pray one today?

Most prayers we pray, all to often are "gimme" prayers. "Oh! Lord, gimme this or gimme that." A prayer of praise is a prayer that is more concerned with glorifying God; than it is with getting for self. If you would come to pray such a prayer today; then may I suggest you read Psalm 150:2 as a basis for your prayer.

This verse of Scripture tells us to praise Him for "his mighty acts." So you ask yourself--what are some of His mighty acts? One is lead almost immediately to think of "His mighty acts" of Creation. Thank Him for the earth He made. Thank Him for the seas He made. Thank Him for the rain which comes as part of His creation. "Thank you Jesus, who made me," said the little boy in his table grace; and why not? Certainly you should praise Him for His mighty act of creating mankind; yourself included. And also that He sustains you.

Then also in your prayer of praise you might praise Him for "His mighty acts" of Redemption. How He led Moses and the Israelites out of Egypt and thru the wilderness, and how He established a special people who have given to us David and the Prophets. But most of all praise Him for His greatest and mightiest act of Redemption, which He accomplished in and through Jesus the Christ; for "God was in Christ, reconciling the world unto Himself". Praise Him according to His excellent greatness.

Are you aware of His excellent greatness? Have you experienced this "His excellent greatness" in Christ? Are you in a position to pray a prayer of praise to Him today? If not--sin lieth at the door. If so; then do it--now; and be blessed for it, as you please Him.

RAYMOND HOPPER

Pastor

East Paterson Bible Church

"The Lord openeth the eyes of the blind; The Lord raiseth them up that are bowed down: The Lord loveth the righteous."

To the man whose eyes the Lord has opened, no day passes without bringing fresh proofs of God's love, wisdom, and power. Many of us walk with blind eyes and deaf ears to the beauty that breathes and the music that rings all along our daily path. Only when we become aware of God's love and mercy through Jesus Christ, are we startled into wonder, admiration and awe, and exclaim, "Surely the Lord is with me and I knew it not."

If God were to us a familiar friend in whom we trusted, we would learn to look upon the eternal side of all living, and entwine the practical, the present, and the humble with the unseen and the eternal. When we look upon the natural things of life as the ministers of the spiritual, we will be surprised by the multitude of things from all sides which call upon us to praise the name of the Lord. Then we will be continually improving our daily walk, and speaking often one to another of the wonderful grace of God.

If we will assign to every day events the true place in our Christian life, we will find the peace of God that passes understanding. If we will see God's providence, and His wise and careful and benevolent foresight, as displayed wherever we choose to look; then we will have found the true spirit of a Christ-filled life.

"Then opened he their understanding; that they might understand the scripture." LUKE 24:45

by

Michael Miner

Notice a certain lack at East Paterson Memorial last week? Numerically speaking, of course. The cause?--the senior trip to Washington, D.C. on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday. 146 of our grads-to-be traveled to the nation's capital for the annual sightseeing venture.

The absence of the class of '66 (most of it anyway) did not succeed in lessening the degree of activity at the school, as the underclassmen brought to a close the campaign activities for Student Council and Senior Class officers for the 66-67 school year. On Wednesday the last official campaigning reached its maddening climax: Thursday's assembly programs offered the candidates the opportunity to address the voters and balloting ensued. The results were not available at this writing but will be included in next week's column.

However....the results from another election are available. The officers for this year's Youth Week have been announced by the Youth Week Committee headed by Mrs. Mildred Brill. The Mayor for this year's festivities is Thomas Barkalow, a previous class president, Jr. Student Council President, athlete, likeable and capable senior. Serving on Tom's council are Jean Gerbino, John Kwasnik, William

YOUTHWEEK COUNCILWOMAN: JEANIE GERBINO

LaBruna, Stewart Levine, AND, interestingly enough, Ellen HAMPEL and Joe PULZONE. The reason for the highlighted names of these last two students is that their respective fathers are in actuality councilmen.

The list of persons filling offices is a lengthy one which I plan to break into categories, one of which will appear in each issue of this paper so that by the time Youth Week starts on May 30 you'll have the full story on who's who.

Coach Karl tells us that there's going to be quite a todo on the part of the Board of Education and the Administration in honoring the Soccer, Baseball, Basketball, Wrestling, Cross Country, Tennis, Track teams and the Cheerleaders at the East Paterson Annual Spring All Sports Banquet. The affair is slated for Wednesday, May 11 at 6:30 p.m. at the Rustic Lodge. Ducats for the evening are available at $5.00 apiece either from the High School office or directly from Mr. Karl.

FROM BEHIND THE DUGOUT

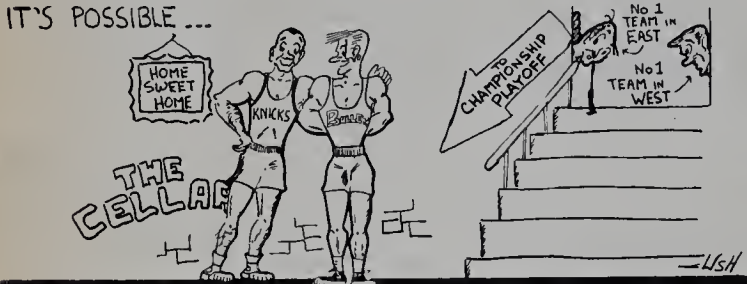

by Don Usherson

IT'S A SHAME L.A. DIDN'T TAKE IT

I was more than a little sorry that the Boston Celtics beat the Los Angeles Lakers last Thursday to win their 8th straight N.B.A. title. Not because I dislike the Celtics, I don't; not because they didn't deserve to win the title, they did; not because they are no longer the Great Celtics of the past; they still are; and not because I'm tired of seeing them win it; though I am. The two main reasons are: 1) Boston finished behind Philadelphia in their division, and therefore are not even divisional champs, 2) The Lakers have played tremendous ball all season and especially in that playoff series (including also the fact that they did earn a playoff berth by winning their division).

What has happened this season is a good example of why the current "playoff" system is ridiculous. If a team is number one in their division after a hundred or so games they, and only they, deserve the right to play the champion in the other division. What would have happened if the Knicks got lucky for eight or ten games and ended up going into the playoffs and Baltimore got lucky and took the playoffs in the West. Can you imagine the Knicks defeating the Bullets and reigning as World Champions, while finishing last in their division? It would be nice...for Knick fans. I agree it's a far-fetched situation, BUT IT CAN HAPPEN!

IT'S POSSIBLE...

Secondly the Lakers have played the kind of ball that makes a championship. They overcame the loss and slow start of Elgin Baylor for part of the season to take their division by a wide margin. Then they were unjustly forced to play the teams they knocked around all season for a chance for the crown; a chance they automatically earned and deserved by the end of the season. Well, they proved that they weren't just a flash-in-the-pan by once again winning the Western Division title. But it was their fine performance in the playoffs that made me sorry that they didn't take it all. First they came from nowhere, after being down 3 games to 1 and being counted out already by everyone, to sweep two big ones in a row to force the series into a final game. Then on Thursday, they proved what a fine team they are. After trailing at one point by nineteen points they closed the gap to nine. With about 2-1/2 minutes left to play I was ready to get up and leave when L.A. put on a performance that was absolutely beautiful. When the final buzzer rang, the Lakers had lost the championship by two points. It was a shame they lost, but their performance certainly shamed no one.

STRICTLY LOCAL....

Coach Dandy certainly must have the luck of the Irish. The one game I know he dreads was rained out Thursday. Every year at this time the High School has its senior trip to Washington which usually drains the baseball team of almost half its players. Last year the Crusaders played Lyndhurst with half its starting lineup in the Capitol. Really they didn't play such a bad game, losing 6-3, but it did prove that if the other seniors had played we would have beaten Lyndhurst which might have meant taking the P.V.C. title. This year things may be different, because while the seniors were away....the team did NOT play!

ALL IN THE GAME

by Steve Quinlan

The most talked about item in sports, lately, seems to be about the once powerful New York Yankees. People have been asking just what happened to them. The only real weak spot on the team is the bullpen. At present the starting rotation consists of Ford, Stottle-meyer, Downing, Peterson, and Friend while the primary relievers are Ramos, Cullen, and Hamilton. The starting rotation appears to be solid except for Friend. In the bullpen there is Ramos who is already 0-3 and is pitching like a class D ballplayer. Last year Cullen was a starter and I'll never know why they demoted him to put Friend in the starting rotation. Hamilton can always be counted on when the team is in trouble as long as a left hander is batting. The obvious solution would be to put Friend in the bullpen and just work with four starters. This would leave a bullpen of Cullen, Friend, and Hamilton which isn't bad in comparison to the rest of the teams in the American League. The hitting is not what it used to be but you can bet that it will start picking up. After all how long do you think Maris, Howard, and Boyer can go on hitting under .200?

Another problem, which may be even more serious than the pitching, is the present manager. Rumors have been spreading lately that Johnny Keane is not well liked by his ballclub and that they will not play for anyone but Ralph Houk. In this case the only possible solution seems to be the replacement of Keane because no one is going to play for someone they don't like.

Councilman James V. Goodwin REPORTS to the People

AS ORDINANCE CHAIRMAN, I have no objection to changing the membership of the Shade Tree Committee from the present three members to five members as requested by the Mayor and Shade Tree Committee. An amendment confirming this action and changing the terms of the appointees should be ready for introduction at the next Council meeting, May 3.

There is no point in amending the "Dog Ordinance" for it is my feeling that the present "Dog Ordinance" and its amendments are perfectly clear and concise.

In order that dog owners be acquainted with the "DOG Ordinance" and its amendments, I would like to recommend that a copy of such be given to every dog owner who renews or newly acquires a dog license. This will result in a better understanding of the do's and don'ts of the ordinance.

I might add that it would be a good practice for the borough, issuing licenses, to have summaries of existing codes and ordinances distributed at the time of requests for permits and licenses for building, health, plumbing, electrical, fire and all other matters that require permission to be granted by the Mayor and Council or subordinate boards.

In cases such as the building codes and others which are lengthy, a summary report as to the requirements and restrictions should be distributed noting application requirements.

An informed public, aware of their responsibilities insures a better cooperative civic spirit. Finally--

NO MATTER HOW MANY ORDINANCES ARE PASSED, BETTER ENFORCEMENT BY OUR POLICE DEPT. AND RESPONSIBLE AGENTS, BOARD OF HEALTH, ETC., PERIODIC INSPECTIONS AND REPORTS ARE THE ANSWER TO PREVENT REPEATED VIOLATIONS OF OUR BOROUGH ORDINANCES.

ELMWOOD DEBORAH "TAG WEEK" MAY 1 THRU 7

Chairlady, Mrs. Leonard Leventstein, and Vice President, Mrs. Lloyd Usherson, announce that the local Elmwood Chapter members are now canvassing for the Deborah Hospital's new "Wing" by holding TAG WEEK this first week in May. These volunteers will be working May 1 through May 7 to aid the Deborah Hospital, located in Browns Mills, New Jersey, in their fight against allied diseases of the chest and toward the completion of the new "5-Story Rogosin Heart Pavilion Wing". At present, only two floors of this "5-Story Wing" have been completed. The generosity of our local citizens are being called on to cooperate in the Elmwood Chapter's efforts and its volunteers; for Deborah needs all the help they can for garner completion of the necessary remaining and unfinished "3-additional-stories" to this Rogosin Heart Wing.

Through your local newspapers and volunteers, you may be able to acquaint yourselves with the wonderful and unselfish devotion being accomplished by all the Deborah Hospital Chapters throughout the State of New Jersey. Governor Hughes has proclaimed the month of May as "DEBORAH TAG WEEK", so that these chapters may go to their neighbors - friends - merchants - banks - etc. and ask for "Tag Week" Contributions. THIS IS YOUR BIG CHANCE, so won't you please open your doors to welcome these volunteers when they call on you for your donation?

Deborah Hospital is a free hospital and asks no fee for expenses or doctors from its patients. Heart surgery, being its primary functions, their excellent staff, nurses, and doctors give endless time and efforts toward the surgical aspects of Cardiac and Pulmonary Diseases. Each and every individual chapter, just as your Elmwood Chapter, does its share with compassion. These fervent individuals give their time and effort toward earning funds during this "MAY TAG WEEK". These volunteers help to save lives through Heart Surgery afforded them at the Deborah Hospital and aid in the fight against Lung Cancer and Tuberculosis. Each and every contribution received by these volunteers may help save a life, too! So, won't you?

Evelyn Belli Elected To National Honor Society

Automation: Newsweek Magazine carried this thought-provoking advertisement inserted by Warner & Swasey, Cleveland Ohio, producers of precision machinery since 1880:

AUTOMATION is another name for making a life more comfortable—and doesn't everyone want that? But not at the expense of jobs; so—look at the record.

1—If Detroit had not been automating since the 1920's, a modern car would cost $65,000, a national authority believes. There would be precious few of them, and hundreds of thousands of jobs in automobile plants, tire factories, steel mills, gasoline refineries, road construction simply would not exist.

2—Washing machines, driers, ironers, dishwashers, and a dozen more have automated our kitchens. That turned the lady of the house from a drudge to a partner, and may have done away with the "servant class" but created a half million jobs in stores and automated appliance factories.

3—Low-priced Japanese transistor radios threatened to close American plants and throw thousands out of jobs. An American manufacturer automated his plant, and so improved his products' value and salability that he employs a third more workers.

4—Once-great American manufacturers of typewriters were losing sales to foreign makers whose prices were based on low wages. But another American firm, not in the typewriter business, developed an entirely new electric typewriter, made it in a highly automated plant at competitive costs, recaptured much of the market and saved American jobs.

5—An American company developed the automatic pin setter for bowling alleys, encouraged the building of alleys in home neighborhoods, made bowling increasingly popular. Yes, the jobs of pin setters were gone, but the number of jobs in the industry was increased and the payroll in the industry increased 700%.

Automation is simply a means of doing things better, with less effort and at lower cost. And lower costs increase markets which means more workers are needed (at better wages) to fill the new and greater demand.

HORSE FLESH: Noble Victory, winner of $312,000 during two seasons of harness racing, was sold for $1 million to a syndicate headed by Alan J. Leavitt. The horse bought as a yearling in 1963 for $33,000, will be raced for two seasons and then retired to stud.

POPULATION EXPLOSION: The Census Bureau estimated that by April 1 U.S. population had climbed to 195,073,000. This was an increase of 15,750,000 or 8.8 per cent since the 1960 census was taken.

H.S. Band Attends Meadowbrook

The marching unit of East Paterson's High School Band recently attended a dinner and show at the Meadowbrook, where they saw Marilyn Maxwell and Carla Alberghetti in "Kismet". The night out for the band, majorettes, color guard, and banner carriers was sponsored by the East Paterson Band Parents Association under the leadership of Abe Krulowitz, president, and Orlando DiGirolamo, Music Director. The combination of dinner and musical was selected by a committee of interested marching unit members and plans were made by a parent's committee.

This activity was substituted for the annual exchange trip, which will now go on a biannual basis with an outing of this nature in the off years.
